F03-AC71-6

Introduction

YOUR CARDHOLDER AGREEMENT

This document, together with your Rates and Fees Table, and any amendments make up the contract between you, the cardmember, and Citizens Bank, N.A. Any special offers related to your Account are subject to this Agreement, unless explained otherwise. We will refer to this document as your "Agreement." THIS AGREEMENT CONTAINS AN ARBITRATION PROVISION INCLUDING A NOTICE REGARDING THE RIGHT TO OPT OUT.

ACCEPTANCE OF YOUR AGREEMENT

Your use of the Account or any payment on the Account indicates your acceptance of the terms of this Agreement.

Any Cards or checks issued to you belong to us. You agree to sign each Card before you use it. You agree to return your Cards and checks to us at any time, if we ask you. When you present your Card, we, a merchant, or any other party acting on our behalf can retain your Card, without prior notice to you.

CHANGES TO YOUR AGREEMENT

We may change the terms of this Agreement, including but not limited to Annual Percentage Rate (APR) and fees, from time to time. We may also add new terms, delete terms, or change any benefit, service, or feature on your Account. We may do this in response to the business, legal or competitive environment. Our ability to make changes to this Agreement is limited by applicable law. If required by applicable law, we will provide notice of the change to you before the effective date of the change. We will tell you in the notice if you have the right to reject the change.

PROMISE TO PAY

We have agreed to lend you money as described in this Agreement, and you agree to pay us back together with interest charges and fees. This promise includes paying for charges you make (even if you do not present your Card or sign the transaction), charges that other people make if you let them use your Account, and charges that additional authorized users make or permit others to make.

REWARDS

Your Account might provide you with the opportunity to earn rewards. If it does, we will separately provide you with a Reward Guide containing information and terms about your rewards.

WORDS USED IN THIS AGREEMENT

"Account" means the relationship established between you and us in this Agreement.

"Card" means any one or more credit cards that we issue to you or someone else with your authorization under this Agreement.

"We," "our" and "us" mean Citizens Bank, N.A., the issuer of your credit Card and the creditor under this Agreement, or any subsequent holder of this Agreement.

“You” and “your” mean anyone who

- applied for the Account (the “primary cardmember”),
- uses or maintains the Account, or
- otherwise agrees to pay for the Account or be obligated under this Agreement.

Using your account

AUTHORIZED USERS

If you ask us to issue a Card on this Account to another person or if you allow any person to use your Account, he or she is an authorized user. You are responsible for any use of your Account by an authorized user. Your Account does not permit you to limit the nature or amount of authority you give to any authorized user and you will not attempt to do so. An authorized user's authority will continue until you (i) notify us that you are terminating the authority and (ii) you physically retrieve any Card, checks and any other means of access to your Card. Otherwise, you will remain liable for any transactions that we cannot prevent.

Each authorized user's privilege ends automatically upon the death of all of the primary cardmembers. If any person uses the Card after the privilege ends, such use indicates his or her agreement to pay us, and we may, at our discretion, pursue the person for payment of any balance or charge resulting from his or her use of the Card. You agree to notify each authorized user that he or she is subject to the terms of this Agreement.

YOUR CREDIT LIMIT

We assign a total credit limit to your Account that we agree to extend to you at any one time. The total credit limit will include a separate limit for cash advances. This information will be shown on your Account statement.

Your available credit will be the amount of your total credit limit, minus the sum of:

(i) the new balance, (ii) any purchases, balance transfers or cash advances which have been authorized but not yet posted to your Account, and (iii) the amount of any payments that have not yet cleared. We may change the amount of your total credit limit and the cash advance limit without prior notice to you.

You agree not to exceed any part of your total credit limit. Even if we permit transactions that exceed any part of your total credit limit, you are responsible for those transactions. If we refuse any such transaction, we may advise the person attempting the transaction that it has been refused and we are not responsible or liable for taking such action.

PURCHASES

You can use your Card to buy or lease goods or services. Each of these transactions is a purchase. In addition, any credit life insurance charges, payment protection plan charges, Account fees set forth below, and other fees that are charged to your Account (except cash advance transaction fees) are treated as purchases and will be subject to the interest rate for purchases.

BALANCE TRANSFERS

We may, at our sole option, allow you to pay an amount you owe on an account you have with other creditors. This is called a balance transfer. We may pay the balance transfer amounts you have authorized up to your total credit limit, unless otherwise limited by the terms of the balance transfer. Balance transfers may not be used to make payments on accounts issued or held by us or our affiliates.

When you make a balance transfer, we will charge interest beginning on the transaction date, as described in more detail in the section Annual Percentage Rate and Interest. We will also charge you a transaction fee as described in your Rates and Fees Table. The transaction fee will accrue interest at the APR for purchases. Balance transfers and balance transfer transaction fees may also be subject to promotional, special or additional terms. Such terms will be included as part of your Agreement.

CASH ADVANCES

A Cash Advance means the use of your Account for a loan in the following ways:

1) Obtaining cash from a financial institution or an ATM:

You can use your Card to obtain cash advances from any financial institution that accepts your Card and processes the transaction. The minimum amount of any cash advance you can obtain from a financial institution in one day is $20 and the maximum amount is $3,000 or the available amount of your cash advance limit, whichever is less.

You can also use your Card and personal identification number (PIN) to get a cash advance from any automated teller machine (ATM) that accepts your Card. The total amount of cash advances you can obtain from ATMs in one day is $500 or the available amount of your cash advance limit, whichever is less. We or the operators of ATMs may place additional limitations and requirements on cash advances you may obtain from ATMs.

Authorization for cash advances over a certain dollar amount or number may be refused under certain circumstances even though you have available cash. These restrictions may be for security or other reasons, such as the ATM or other electronic authorization system not working properly.

2) Convenience Checks:

A convenience check is any check we provide to you for accessing your account to obtain credit. A convenience check transaction is a cash advance. Convenience checks may not be used to make payment on any account issued or held by us or our affiliates. Convenience checks may be subject to promotional, special or additional terms, which are included as part of your Agreement.

We may pay the amount you have authorized up to your available credit limit, unless otherwise changed by the terms of the offer. We reserve the right to put conditions on the use of these checks and to reject, decline and return unpaid any check at our discretion. If we decline a check, you may have to pay returned check fees or other penalties to whom ever you wrote the check. If you ask us to stop payment on a check, you will be charged a stop payment fee. If you transfer a balance using a convenience check, that transaction will be treated like any other convenience check transaction, unless we tell you otherwise. We do not certify or return these checks. Convenience checks may include an expiration date printed on the check. We will honor checks received for payment before the expiration date printed on the check, provided your account is open and in good standing, with available credit.

3) Purchasing a Cash Equivalent:

You may use your Card to enter into a cash equivalent transaction. This includes purchasing travelers checks, savings bonds, foreign currency, money orders, wire transfers, lottery tickets, gift cards, gambling chips or wagers, or similar products or services as determined by us.

When you obtain a cash advance we will charge interest beginning on the transaction date, as described in more detail in the section Annual Percentage Rate and Interest. We will also charge you a transaction fee as described in your Rates and Fees Table. The transaction fee will accrue interest at the APR for cash advances.

FOREIGN TRANSACTION/CURRENCY CONVERSION

If a foreign transaction fee applies to your Account, we will charge you a fee for transactions that are conducted in a currency other than U.S. Dollars. This includes, for example, online or phone purchases where the transaction is conducted in a currency other than U.S. Dollars. This fee is calculated on the U.S. Dollar amount of the transaction. The transaction fee is an interest charge that will accrue interest at the APR for purchases.

Our network providers (e.g., Mastercard) convert transactions in foreign currencies into U.S. dollars. The type of card you have determines who does the conversion. Each network provider follows its own procedures, which it may change from time to time without notice to you at its discretion.

The exchange rate will be determined using either the range of rates available in the wholesale currency markets for the processing date or a government- mandated rate in effect on that date. The exchange rate used by our network providers may differ from the rate on the date of your transaction. You agree to accept and pay the U.S. Dollar amount converted from a foreign currency as provided in this section. We will deduct the applicable fees from this amount. This means that the amount of the credit may be different from the amount that was originally charged to your Account for the transaction.

ALLOWED USE

You agree to use your Account only for lawful purposes. You agree not to make or allow to be made any transactions which are illegal under any state or federal law. We may decline to approve any transaction which we reasonably believe is illegal under any state or federal law.

Your billing statement and making payments

BILLING STATEMENTS

We will send you a billing statement each month that you have a credit or debit balance of more than $1, when an interest charge has been imposed, or when there has been activity in your Account, unless we deem your Account uncollectible or delinquency collection proceedings have been instituted against you. In our discretion, we may choose to send you a statement even if you do not have a credit or debit of $1 or more.

Your statement will show the total amount that you owe us as of the end of the last billing cycle. It will also show the minimum payment you must make to us by the stated due date.

NOTIFYING US IF YOU FIND A MISTAKE

Unless you notify us in writing within 60 days of receipt, your billing statement will be deemed to be correct.

HOW TO MAKE A PAYMENT

Payments may be mailed to the address shown on your billing statement. Payments made by mail must be accompanied by the return portion of your statement. Payments must be made in U.S. Dollars drawn on a federally-insured depository institution located in the U.S. You authorize us to collect any payment check either electronically or by draft.

In addition to accepting payments by mail, we may permit you to make payments by electronic means, including by telephone or Internet, subject to any terms we may impose on these alternative methods of payment, including charging an expedited service fee of which we will inform you at that time. Also, we may permit you to make payments in person at one of our branches.

HOW WE CREDIT PAYMENTS

Payments received at the address shown on your billing statement before 5:00 P.M. Eastern Time will be credited by us for that day. Payments received after this time will be credited for the next business day. If your payment due date is on a day on which we do not receive mailed payments, a mailed payment received on the next business day will not be treated as late.

If you do not use one of the ways to make payments stated in this Agreement, the return portion of your statement is damaged and we are unable to identify your Account, or you do not comply with the payment requirements stated on your statement, crediting of your payments may be delayed up to 5 days or your payment may be rejected.

If a payment is received in person at one of our branches before the actual time of closing of the branch at which the payment is made, it will be credited by us for that day.

MINIMUM PAYMENT

You must pay at least the minimum payment due by the payment due date. You may pay the entire amount you owe us at any time. The minimum payment due and payment due date are shown on each billing statement. You also agree to pay amounts in excess of your credit limit when billed to your monthly statements or sooner if we ask. If you do not pay the minimum payment by the due date, we may charge you a late payment fee.

HOW WE CALCULATE THE MINIMUM PAYMENT

If your new balance is $30 or less, your minimum payment will be the new balance. Otherwise, it will be the greater of (i) $30; or (ii) equal to the total billed Interest charges (excluding transaction fees for balance transfers, cash advances, foreign transactions, and cash equivalents), and any billed late payment fees and 1% of the new balance.

Any amount past due and any amount over your total credit limit or cash advance limit may be added to the minimum payment. Your minimum payment, exclusive of interest charges, will be rounded to the nearest whole dollar. We may change your minimum amount due including increasing your minimum amount due subject to applicable law.

If you exercise your right to cancel contained in a change-in-terms notification, we may increase your minimum amount due. We may require (i) a method in which the minimum periodic payment includes a percentage of the outstanding balance that is twice the percentage required before the increase or (ii) a method which incorporates an amortization period of not less than 5 years. We may also choose a method that is no less beneficial to you than the other two methods previously described.

HOW PAYMENTS ARE APPLIED

Payments less than or equal to the minimum amount due will be applied in any order that we shall from time to time choose. Generally, payments less than or equal to the minimum amount due are applied to introductory, promotional or low rate balances before we apply payments to balances that are subject to standard or higher rates, regardless of when the transaction is made. Any amount of your payments that is greater than the minimum amount due will be applied first to balances with the highest APR, and then to each successive balance with the next highest APR, until the payment is exhausted.

RESTRICTIVE ENDORSEMENTS

Any conditional check, money order or any other instrument tendered with a restrictive endorsement or as a full satisfaction of a disputed debt must be sent to our address for billing error notices shown on each statement and must conspicuously state on the face of that payment or in an accompanying letter that it is tendered for this purpose. If you make payment in any other way and we accept it, we will not have waived our right to collect any amount from you owed under this Agreement.

Annual percentage rate and interest

ABOUT YOUR ANNUAL PERCENTAGE RATES

The APR or "annual percentage rate" is an annualized interest rate. Different APRs apply to different balances (called transaction types) on your Account, such as the balances on purchases, balance transfers and cash advances.

Your APRs may be either fixed or variable. Your Rates and Fees Table and your statement disclose whether you have fixed or variable rates. If an APR is variable, it may vary monthly as the Index rate changes and will be reset on the first day of each billing cycle. The Index rate is described in your Rates and Fees table. If the Index increases, the variable APRs will increase. Any increase in your APRs will apply to all unpaid purchases, balance transfers and cash advances (regardless of the transaction date), will increase the interest charge and may increase the minimum payment.

HOW WE CALCULATE INTEREST

In General. We calculate the interest charge separately for each transaction type (purchases, balance transfers, and cash advances) as well as for any applicable promotional rate. This means that your Account may have separate balances for each transaction type. The total interest charged for a billing cycle is the sum of the interest charged for each balance.

We use the average daily balance (including new purchases) method, which means we calculate a daily balance for each type of transaction and use the daily balances to determine your interest charges. According to this method, we calculate the interest charge for each balance by

- applying the “daily periodic rate” to the “average daily balance” and
- multiplying the result by the number of days in the billing cycle.

WE CALCULATE ITS COMPONENTS IN THE FOLLOWING WAY:

The “daily periodic rate” is a daily interest rate. The daily periodic rate for each transaction type is equal to the APR for that transaction type divided by 365.

To get the “average daily balance” for each transaction type we add up the daily balances and then divide the result by the total number of days in the billing cycle. If any day’s daily balance is a credit balance, we will treat it as a balance equal to $0.00.

We calculate the “daily balance” by

- taking the “beginning balance” of the day,
- adding any new charges and applicable fees,
- except for the first day of the billing cycle, adding the amount of any interest equal to the prior day’s daily balance multiplied by the daily periodic interest rate, and
- subtracting any payments or credits.

The “beginning balance” for the first day of the billing cycle is generally the ending balance for the prior billing cycle, including unpaid interest. For the rest of the billing cycle, the beginning balance is the prior day’s daily balance.

The addition of the prior day’s interest to the daily balance calculation causes interest to compound daily. We may, at our discretion, round these amounts, subject to any restrictions under applicable law.

MINIMUM INTEREST CHARGE

If any interest charge is due, we will charge you at least the minimum interest charge shown on your Rates and Fees Table.

HOW TO AVOID INTEREST CHARGES

You can avoid interest charges on purchases if you pay your entire balance by the payment due date every month. You will not pay interest for an entire billing cycle (“interest-free period” or “grace period”) on new purchases and fees if you paid the entire balance by the payment due date on your previous billing statement. The interest-free period or grace period is the time when you are not charged interest on new purchases and fees. We will not charge you interest on any portion of a purchase balance you repay while that balance is subject to an interest-free period. The payment due date will be at least 25 days from the statement date. To maintain the interest-free period, you must continue to pay your entire balance every month.

You will lose your interest-free period if, at any time, you pay less than the entire balance shown on your billing statement. If you lose your interest-free period, the unpaid balance for purchases will be charged interest beginning on the transaction date and will continue to be charged until payment in full is credited to your Account. The transaction date for purchases is the day you make the purchase as shown on your statement.

Once the interest-free period is lost, you may owe interest charges even if you pay the entire balance stated on your most recent billing statement by the due date. This occurs because, interest continues to accrue every day on the balance shown on your most recent statement until your payment in full is credited to your Account. The interest charged from the date of the billing statement until the payment is credited to your Account will be included in your next billing statement.

There is no interest-free period for cash advance or balance transfer transactions. You will pay interest on cash advance and balance transfer transactions starting on the transaction date until you pay the entire amount in full. The transaction date for balance transfers is the day you make the balance transfer as shown on a statement. The transaction date for cash advances and related cash advance fees is the day you receive the cash advance.

READ THIS SECTION CAREFULLY AS IT WILL HAVE A SUBSTANTIAL IMPACT ON HOW LEGAL DISPUTES BETWEEN YOU AND US ARE RESOLVED. If you do not opt out, for a dispute subject to arbitration, there is a waiver of rights as discussed below. Arbitration procedures are simpler and more limited than rules applicable in court. The decision of the arbitrator is generally final and binding.

You have the right to cancel or opt out of this Arbitration Agreement as set forth below.

SPECIAL DEFINITION OF “WE,” “US” AND “OUR”

Solely for purposes of this Arbitration Agreement, the terms “we,” “us” and “our,” in addition to the meanings set forth in this Credit Card Agreement (the “Card Agreement”), also refer to our employees, officers, directors, parents, controlling persons, subsidiaries, affiliates, successors and assigns.

BINDING ARBITRATION

If you have a dispute with us, and we are not able to resolve the dispute informally, you and we agree that upon demand by either you or us, the dispute will be resolved through the arbitration process as set forth in this part. A “claim” or “dispute,” as used in this Arbitration Agreement, is any unresolved disagreement between you and us, arising from or relating in any way to the Card Agreement (including any renewals, extensions, addendums or modifications), the credit relationship between us, or relating to any reward program, feature, or benefit. It includes any disagreement relating in any way to services, accounts or any other matters; to your use of any of our banking facilities; or to any means you may use to access your account(s). Any claims or disputes arising from or relating to the advertising of our services, the application for, or the approval or establishment of your Account are also included. Claims are subject to arbitration, regardless of what theory they are based on, whether they seek legal or equitable remedies, or irrespective whether they are common law or statutory (federal or state) claims. Arbitration applies to any and all such claims or disputes, whether they arose in the past, may currently exist, or may arise in the future.

However, “claim” or “dispute” as used in this Arbitration Agreement does not include any dispute or controversy about the validity, enforceability, coverage or scope of this Arbitration Agreement or any part thereof (including, without limitation, the “Class Action and Class Arbitration Waiver” set forth below, subparts (1) and (2) of the “Severability and Survival” part set forth below and/or this sentence); all such disputes or controversies are for a court and not an arbitrator to decide; but disputes about the validity or enforceability of this Account Agreement as a whole are for the arbitrator and not a court to decide. ANY DISPUTE CONCERNING THE VALIDITY, ENFORCEABILITY, COVERAGE OR SCOPE OF THIS ARBITRATION AGREEMENT SHALL BE RESOLVED IN A RHODE ISLAND STATE OR FEDERAL COURT OF LAW, AND THE PARTIES HEREBY SUBMIT TO THE JURISDICTION OF SUCH A COURT FOR SUCH PURPOSE.

TRIAL WAIVER

YOU AGREE THAT YOU AND WE ARE WAIVING THE RIGHT TO A JURY TRIAL AND TRIAL BEFORE A JUDGE IN A PUBLIC COURT upon demand by either party for arbitration. However, you and we retain the right to pursue in small claims court (or an equivalent state court) any dispute that is within that court’s jurisdiction and advance only an individual claim for relief. If either you or we fail to submit to binding arbitration of an arbitrable dispute following lawful demand, the party so failing shall bear all costs and expenses incurred by the other party in compelling arbitration.

CLASS ACTION AND CLASS ARBITRATION WAIVER

NEITHER YOU NOR WE SHALL BE ENTITLED TO JOIN OR CONSOLIDATE DISPUTES BY OR AGAINST OTHERS IN ANY COURT ACTION OR ARBITRATION, OR TO INCLUDE IN ANY COURT ACTION OR ARBITRATION ANY DISPUTE AS A REPRESENTATIVE OR MEMBER OF A CLASS, OR TO ACT IN ANY ARBITRATION IN THE INTEREST OF THE GENERAL PUBLIC OR IN A PRIVATE ATTORNEY GENERAL CAPACITY, UNLESS THOSE PERSONS ARE JOINT ACCOUNT BORROWERS OR BENEFICIARIES ON YOUR ACCOUNT. This is so whether or not the claim has been assigned.

ARBITRATION PROCEDURES

You or we may submit a dispute to binding arbitration at any time, regardless of whether a lawsuit or other proceeding has been previously commenced.

Each arbitration, including the selection of the arbitrator(s) shall be administered by the American Arbitration Association (AAA), or JAMS according to such forum's rules and procedures. You may obtain a copy of the arbitration rules for these forums, as well as additional information about initiating arbitration by contacting these arbitration forums:

American Arbitration Association
1-800-778-7879 (toll-free) | website: www.adr.org

JAMS
1-800-352-5267 (toll-free) | website: www.jamsadr.com

In the event that JAMS or the AAA is unable to handle the dispute for any reason, then the matter shall be arbitrated instead by a neutral arbitrator selected by agreement of the parties pursuant to the AAA rules of procedure; or, if the parties cannot agree, selected by a court in accordance with the Federal Arbitration Act (Title 9 of the United States Code) ("FAA"). To the extent that there is any variance between the selected forum's rules and this Arbitration Agreement, this Arbitration Agreement shall control.

If you initiate the arbitration, you must notify us in writing at Credit Card Services – Arbitration, P.O. Box 7092, Bridgeport, CT 06601. If we initiate the arbitration, we will notify you in writing at your last known address in our file.

The arbitration shall take place in the federal judicial district in which you reside, unless the parties agree to a different location in writing. Arbitrators must be members of the state bar where the arbitration is held, with expertise in the substantive laws applicable to the subject matter of the dispute. No arbitrator or other party to an arbitration proceeding may disclose the existence, content or results thereof, except for disclosures of information by a party required in the ordinary course of its business or by applicable law or regulation.

The arbitrator will follow applicable substantive law to the extent consistent with the FAA. The arbitrator will give effect to the applicable statutes of limitation and will dismiss barred claims. In addition, you or we may submit a written request to the arbitrator to expand the scope of discovery normally allowable. At the timely request of either you or us, the arbitrator must provide a brief written explanation of the basis for the award. A judgment on the award may be entered by any court having jurisdiction.

You and we agree that in our relationship arising from this Card Agreement:

- (1) the parties are participating in transactions involving interstate commerce; and
- (2) this Arbitration Agreement and any resulting arbitration are governed by the provisions of the FAA, and, to the extent any provision of that act is inapplicable or unenforceable, the laws of the state that govern the relationship between you and us.

No arbitrator shall have authority to entertain any dispute on behalf of a person who is not a named party, nor shall any arbitrator have authority to make any award for the benefit of, or against, any person who is not a named party.

ARBITRATION COSTS

The party initiating the arbitration (or appeal of the first arbitration award) shall pay the initial filing fee. If you file the arbitration and an award is rendered in your favor, we will reimburse you for your filing fee. If there is a hearing, we will pay the fees and costs for the first day of that hearing. All other fees and costs will be allocated in accordance with the rules of the arbitration forum. However, we will advance or reimburse filing and other fees if the arbitrator rules that you cannot afford to pay them or finds other good cause for requiring us to do so; or if you ask us in writing and we determine in good faith there is justifiable reason for doing so. Each party shall bear the expense of their respective attorneys, experts, and witnesses and other expenses, regardless of who prevails, but the arbitrator will have the authority to award attorneys and expert witness fees and costs to the extent permitted by either the Card Agreement, the forum's rules or applicable law.

ARBITRATION AWARD AND APPEAL

The arbitrator's award shall be final and binding on all parties, except for any right of appeal provided by the FAA. However, any party can, within 30 days after the entry of the award by the arbitrator, appeal the award to a three-arbitrator panel administered by the forum. The panel shall reconsider anew all factual and legal issues, following the same rules of procedure and decide by majority vote. Reference in this Arbitration Agreement to "the arbitrator" shall mean the panel if an appeal of the arbitrator's decision has been taken. The costs of such an appeal will be borne in accordance with the above paragraph entitled "Arbitration Costs." Any final decision of the appeal panel is subject to judicial review only as provided under the FAA.

SEVERABILITY AND SURVIVAL

If any part of this Arbitration Agreement is deemed or found to be unenforceable for any reason, the remainder shall be enforceable, except that:

1. The parties acknowledge that the Class Action and Class Arbitration Waiver is material and essential to the arbitration of any disputes between them and is non-severable from this Arbitration Agreement. If the Class Action and Class Arbitration Waiver is limited, voided or found unenforceable, then this Arbitration Agreement (except for this sentence) shall be null and void with respect to such proceeding, subject to the right to appeal the limitation or invalidation of the Class Action and Class Arbitration Waiver. The parties acknowledge and agree that under no circumstances will a class action be arbitrated; and
2. if a claim is brought under California law seeking public injunctive relief and a court determines that the restrictions in the Class Action and Class Arbitration Waiver or elsewhere in this Arbitration Agreement prohibiting the arbitrator from awarding relief on behalf of third parties are unenforceable with respect to such claim (and that determination becomes final after all appeals have been exhausted), the claim for public injunctive relief will be determined in court and any individual claims seeking monetary relief will be arbitrated. In such a case the parties will request that the court stay the claim for public injunctive relief until the arbitration award pertaining to individual relief has been entered in court. In no event will a claim for public injunctive relief be arbitrated.

This Arbitration Agreement shall survive the closing of your Account and the termination or modification of any relationship between us.

NOTICE AND CURE

Prior to initiating an arbitration, you may give us a written Claim Notice describing the basis of your claim and the amount you would accept in resolution of the Claim, and a reasonable opportunity, not less than thirty (30) days, to resolve the claim. Such a Claim Notice must be sent to us by certified mail, return receipt requested, at Credit Card Services – Arbitration, P.O. Box 7092, Bridgeport, CT 06601. This is the sole and only method by which you can submit a Claim Notice. You should address all claims you have in a single Claim Notice and/or a single arbitration.

COLLECTION COSTS

Except where prohibited by law, if we take court action or commence an arbitration proceeding against you for collection after you default, or if you elect arbitration of a collection action we have brought against you in court, you will also be liable for court or arbitration costs, other charges or fees, and reasonable attorneys' fees, should we prevail in such court action or arbitration.

RIGHTS PRESERVED

This Arbitration Agreement does not prohibit you or us from exercising any lawful rights or using other available remedies to preserve, or obtain possession of property; exercise self-help remedies, including setoff rights; or obtain provisional or ancillary remedies such as injunctive relief, attachment, garnishment or the appointment of a receiver by a court of competent jurisdiction.

RIGHT TO CANCEL OR OPT OUT OF THIS ARBITRATION AGREEMENT

You may opt out of this Arbitration Agreement to resolve any claim or dispute by arbitration. To opt out of this Arbitration Agreement, you must send us written notice of your decision within forty-five (45) days of the opening of your Account or of receiving the Arbitration Agreement for the first time. Such notice must clearly state that you wish to cancel or opt out of the Arbitration Agreement section of this Card Agreement. It should include your name, address, Account name, Account number and your signature and must be mailed to Credit Card Services – Arbitration, P.O. Box 7092, Bridgeport, CT 06601. This is the sole and only method by which you can opt out of this Arbitration Agreement. Your exercise of the right to opt-out will not affect any remaining terms of this Card Agreement and will not result in any adverse consequence to you or your Account. You agree that our business records will be final and conclusive evidence with respect to whether you cancelled or opted out of this Arbitration Agreement in a timely and proper fashion.

Your billing rights – keep this document for future use

This notice tells you about your rights and our responsibilities under the Fair Credit Billing Act.

WHAT TO DO IF YOU FIND A MISTAKE ON YOUR STATEMENT

If you think there is an error on your statement, write to us at Credit Card Services – Disputes, P.O. Box 7092, Bridgeport, CT 06601-3211.

In your letter, give us the following information:

- Account Information: Your name and account number.
- Dollar amount: The dollar amount of the suspected error.
- Description of problem: If you think there is an error on your bill, describe what you believe is wrong and why you believe it is a mistake.

YOU MUST CONTACT US:

- Within 60 days after the error appeared on your statement.
- At least 3 business days before an automated payment is scheduled. If you want to stop payment on the amount you think is wrong.

You must notify us of any potential errors in writing. You may call us, but if you do we are not required to investigate any potential errors and you may have to pay the amount in question.

What will happen after we receive your letter

WHEN WE RECEIVE YOUR LETTER, WE MUST DO TWO THINGS:

1. Within 30 days of receiving your letter, we must tell you that we received your letter. We will also tell you if we have already corrected the error.
2. Within 90 days of receiving your letter, we must either correct the error or explain to you why we believe the bill is correct.

WHILE WE INVESTIGATE WHETHER OR NOT THERE HAS BEEN AN ERROR:

- We cannot try to collect the amount in question, or report you as delinquent on that amount.
- The charge in question may remain on your statement, and we may continue to charge you interest on that amount.
- While you do not have to pay the amount in question, you are responsible for the remainder of your balance.
- We can apply any unpaid amount against your credit limit.

AFTER WE FINISH OUR INVESTIGATION, ONE OF TWO THINGS WILL HAPPEN

If we made a mistake: You will not have to pay the amount in question or any interest or other fees related to that amount.

If we do not believe there was a mistake: You will have to pay the amount in question, along with applicable interest and fees. We will send you a statement of the amount you owe and the date payment is due. We may then report you as delinquent if you do not pay the amount we think you owe.

If you receive our explanation but still believe your bill is wrong, you must write to us within 10 days telling us that you still refuse to pay. If you do so, we cannot report you as delinquent without also reporting that you are questioning your bill. We must tell you the name of anyone to whom we reported you as delinquent, and we must let those organizations know when the matter has been settled between us. If we do not follow all of the rules above, you do not have to pay the first $50 of the amount you question even if your bill is correct.

YOUR RIGHTS IF YOU ARE DISSATISFIED WITH YOUR CREDIT CARD PURCHASES:

If you are dissatisfied with the goods or services that you have purchased with your credit card and you have tried in good faith to correct the problem with the merchant, you may have the right to not pay the remaining amount due on the purchase.

TO USE THIS RIGHT, ALL OF THE FOLLOWING MUST BE TRUE:

1. The purchase must have been made in your home state or within 100 miles of your current mailing address, and the purchase price must have been more than $50. (Note: Neither of these are necessary if your purchase was based on an advertisement we mailed to you, or if we own the company that sold you the goods or services.)
2. You must have used your credit card for the purchase. Purchases made with cash advances from an ATM or with a check that accesses your credit card account do not qualify.
3. You must not yet have fully paid for the purchase.

If all of the criteria above are met and you are still dissatisfied with the purchase, contact us in writing at: Credit Card Services – Disputes, P.O. Box 7092, Bridgeport, CT 06601-3211.

While we investigate, the same rules apply to the disputed amount as discussed above. After we finish our investigation, we will tell you of our decision. At that point, if we think you owe an amount and you do not pay, we may report you as delinquent.
